

HIS WORD IN MY HANDS

Cornhill Scotland

A day of Bible-handling training
Saturday 19th March 2016

HIS WORD IN MY HANDS

When the Bible is taught, God's voice is heard. It is vital, therefore, that those who teach others are equipped to handle God's Word well.

Whether you teach Sunday school, lead a small group Bible study, give talks at a camp or holiday club, lead student work, or are thinking of doing a ministry apprenticeship, this Cornhill Scotland Training Day will provide an introduction to the basic principles of how to handle the Bible correctly.

Cornhill Scotland is committed to training Christians for Biblical ministry in partnership with local churches. It aims to equip Christians so they understand the Bible accurately, teach the Bible effectively and apply the Bible appropriately.

Shaping Clear and Competent
Messengers of the Truth

PROGRAMME

- 9.30 am Registration & coffee
- 10.00 am The Heart of Ministry: His Word in My Hands
Andy Gemmill
- 11.00 am Coffee
- 11.30 am How do we handle Old Testament Prophecy?
Edward Lobb
- 12.30 pm Lunch (not provided)
- 1.30 pm Workshops: putting it into practice
- 2.30 pm Break
- 2.50 pm Hearing from Hosea - His word to our hearts
Rupert Hunt-Taylor
- 3.40 pm Question Time - Edward, Andy & Rupert to answer questions about the day and the Cornhill Training Course
- 4.00 pm Close

The day will be led by our own Cornhill Scotland Staff:

Edward Lobb is the Director of Cornhill Scotland. He has had a keen interest in expository preaching from his earliest years in ministry.

Andy Gemmill is co-Director of Cornhill Scotland. He was in pastoral ministry before coming to Scotland to head up Cornhill's Pastors' Training Course.

Rupert Hunt-Taylor is a Lecturer at Cornhill and Associate Minister in the Tron Church, where he has particular responsibility for students and young workers.

The cost of the day is £5 (no charge for students if you book in advance by Wed 16th Mar.). For more information or to book your place visit:

www.cornhillscotland.org.uk

info@cornhillscotland.org.uk 0141 333 0152
31 Bath Street, Glasgow G2 1HW